CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY REVOLVER AND PISTOL CLUB

Application for membership / probationary membership / membership renewal

Dear prospective member,

In accordance with Home Office regulations we must obtain a letter of accreditation from the Tutor of any person seeking to join CURPC. We would be grateful if you could ask your tutor to complete the bottom section of this form. We must also ask you to declare that you are not prohibited from membership of a shooting club or the possession of firearms / ammunition as dictated by the 1986 Firearms Act (as amended). If you have had a firearms or shotgun certificate revoked, or an application for such a certificate refused, this is not necessarily a disqualification from shooting although this information has to be disclosed upon application. You should also be aware that the 1997 Firearms Amendment Act obliges CURPC to inform the police of the name and address of anyone who applies for membership.

Section 21 of the 1968 Firearms Act (as amended), states that you may not at any time have (this means in practice fire a firearm in a club situation) a firearm or ammunition in your posession if: (i) you have ever been sentenced to preventive detention, or imprisonment or to corrective training for a term of three years or more, or (ii) have been in borstal training, corrective training for less than three years, or in prison for a term of between three months and three years, and are within five years of your release.

NOTE: Any member may have his / her membership terminated at any time for misuse of the club, its furnishings and equipment or for shooting at objects other than official targets. The club committee reserves the right to refuse membership or renewal and is under no obligation to give reasons, nor do applicants have the right of appeal.

I declare that the above information is correct, that I am not a prohibited person as defined by the Section 21 of the Firearms Act 1968 (as amended), that I agree to abide by the club rules, and that I consent under the 1998 Data Protection Act to CURPC storing information about me for its register of members, match results and accounts.
